WORLD BLASTING INNOVATORS EXHIBITOR REGULATIONS

We know what you are thinking. A first-time conference? Should we go, or not?

Dear exhibitor, this will be a completely different approach in terms of conferences you normally attend. Let us give you a couple of reasons for you to join us:

- You or your company will be supporting a group of individuals that will be working on innovations and generating new products or ideas – this is how the future is made and you can benefit from that.
- You'll be in front of young generations and innovators, understanding this target will help you to design better your communication and products
- And if you are worried in terms of visibility, as you already understood, we are doing a big Design Thinking Workshop,
 - You'll be asked to provide a problem that your business or industry is facing – you'll be mentioned and we'll try to solve it.
 - One of the activities for all attendees will be visiting the event booths and discuss alternatives and available technologies.
- We are preparing a series of fun, engaging, dynamic and energetic activities to make business interactions more enjoyable and productive.

In order to make this event sustainable we are presenting here the pricing and offers for the World Blasting Conference.

1 All exhibitors must register for the event before 31/07/2024.

2 Interested exhibitors may find the link for registration at
